

Taught By Innocence

Words: Lucky Siochos Music:Ageworn

You will never know the secrets of this unknown state
Hidden mysteries are the reasons why I'm on this place
Am I artificial? Or Am I real?
Am I only dreaming? Or can't you see?

You will never know who really stands behind this plot
Trust on trickish lies and trust upon a tricky man
Blinded by some brave man; you lost your head
Wait until tomorrow, until the curtain fall.....

It's time to tell the truth now, you can believe my words
Cause I don't wanna rape your minds no more
Forget what you've believed on, you must reset your brains
Mendacity pollutes your hearts inside

Side, Side by Side
They march on
Hypocrits, you honest hypocrits
Salvation's on your lips
It slips outside your mouth
When you all stand and pray

Your education was built on Drugs, on Lies and Tears
To keep you satisfied for all the time (and all you need)
OBEDIENCE was the first, the second was BELIEVE
The third was DEATH from which you can't escape

Side, Side by Side
Catch 'em Now
Don't loose time
You're sentenced for your crimes
Expect the sudden end of your career
While you all stand and pray

Taught by Innocence
Black Milk in your veins
Taught by Innocence
Headless terror reigns
Taught by Innocence
Indoctrinate by wolves
Taught by Innocence
And you all are damned!

Now that you understand , now that the dust is gone
Try to keep your sense awake, never forget the suffer!

Side, Side by Side
Catch 'em Now
Don't loose time
You're sentenced for your crimes
Expect the sudden end of your career (Just look)

Side, Side by Side
Catch 'em Now (They lay dead)
Don't loose time (Without crowns)
Can't you see they're lying 'round
While we all stand and laugh!
