

The Evil Inside

Words: Lucky Siochos Music: Lucky and Jorgo Siochos

Tears are running while time is passing by Look inside; nothing you will see
When the laugh fades out, silence is so loud
When my pain returns fear is living on

Can you hear me? I'm whispering through your dreams
Can you feel me? While I'm inside this cage
When the laugh fades out, silence is so loud
When my pain returns fear is living on

No one's here to share my hopes and dreams
And anxiety crawls up with endless speed
I escape to never ending grounds
I feel safe when I'm locked deep inside myself

Murder me 'cause I'm the public fear
Look at me and my filthy hands
Count the corps which I've left behind
Catch me now and you will make an end ...
